CONSUMER FINANCIAL PROTECTION BUREAU

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING

File No. 2017-CFPB-0019

In the Matter of:

MERIDIAN TITLE CORPORATION

CONSENT ORDER

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (Bureau) has reviewed certain real estate settlement services practices of Meridian Title Corporation (MTC, Meridian, or Respondent) and has identified violations of § 8 of the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, 12 U.S.C. § 2607, and its implementing regulation, Regulation X, 12 C.F.R. Part 1024 (formerly codified at 24 C.F.R. Part 3500) (collectively, RESPA), in connection with its referring consumers to an affiliated title-insurance business.

Under §§ 1053 and 1055 of the Consumer Financial Protection Act of 2010 (“CFPA”), 12 U.S.C. §§ 5563, 5565, and § 8 of RESPA, 12 U.S.C. § 2607, the Bureau issues this Consent Order (Order).

I

Jurisdiction

1. The Bureau has jurisdiction over this matter under §§ 1053 and 1055 of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. §§ 5563 and 5565, and § 8 of RESPA, 12 U.S.C. §2607.

II

Stipulation

2. Respondent has executed a “Stipulation and Consent to the Issuance of a Consent Order,” dated September 26, 2017 (Stipulation), which is incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein, and is accepted in full by the Bureau. By this Stipulation, Respondent has consented to the issuance of this Order by the Bureau under §§ 1053 and 1055 of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. §§ 5563 and 5565, without admitting or denying any of the findings of fact or conclusions of law, except that Respondent admits the facts necessary to establish the Bureau’s jurisdiction over Respondent and the subject matter of this action.

III

Definitions

3. The following definitions shall apply to this Order:
 - a. “Affected Consumers” means those consumers who did not receive a RESPA-compliant affiliated business disclosure form in 2014, 2015, or 2016, in relation to a title insurance policy issued by Respondent in its capacity as title policy-issuing agent for Arsenal Insurance Corporation.
 - b. “Board” means Respondent’s duly elected and acting Board of Directors.
 - c. “Effective Date” means the date on which the Order is issued.
 - d. “Enforcement Director” means the Assistant Director of the Office of Enforcement for the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, or their delegate.
 - e. “Related Consumer Action” means a private action by or on behalf of one or more consumers, or an enforcement action by another governmental agency brought against Respondent based on substantially the same facts as described in this Order.

- f. “Relevant Period” includes the period from January 1, 2014 through and including December 31, 2016.
- g. “Respondent” means Meridian Title Corporation; its subsidiaries, successors and assigns.

IV

Bureau Findings and Conclusions

The Bureau finds the following:

- 4. Respondent is a settlement agent and title insurance agency headquartered in South Bend, Indiana. Respondent issues title-insurance policies, provides mortgage loan settlement services, and conducts loan closings in connection with residential real estate transactions. In its role as title policy issuing agent, Respondent, among other things, procures title policy orders from borrowers and lenders and issues title policy commitments, final title policies, and related endorsements. As a settlement agent, Respondent facilitates the real property and mortgage loan settlement services required to close the mortgage loan and purchase.
- 5. Respondent is a “covered person” as that term is defined by 12 U.S.C. § 5481(6).
- 6. Title insurance is a required element of almost all residential real estate purchases involving a mortgage loan. It is a significant cost for consumers in those transactions. Title insurance premiums are paid only once, at the time of sale or refinancing, typically to the title agent who has procured the insured’s title policy order. Under an agency agreement between a title policy issuing agent and the title insurance underwriter, title agents ordinarily retain or are paid a portion of the title policy premium as a commission for the procurement and issuance of the title insurance policy. Accordingly, a title-policy issuing agent generally has a contractual duty to their title insurance underwriter principal to account for the premiums it has collected, and the title insurance underwriter generally has the contractual right to audit the title agent's relevant financial records. The party responsible for ordering and paying for the title policies varies, by custom or practice, by state, and in some cases by area within states. For example, in many areas, the seller pays for the owner's title policy and the buyer for the lender's title policy; but the buyer may also pay for both policies or split some (or all) of the costs with the seller.

7. The selection of the title policy issuing agent and the title policy underwriter, as well as the settlement agent, is an infrequent and unfamiliar transaction for many borrowers. Accordingly, consumers must often rely on the advice of a real estate or mortgage professional in choosing a title issuing agent and settlement agent. As a result, title policy issuing agents, settlement agents, or those who conduct settlements normally market their products and services to settlement services professionals rather than to consumers. So while consumers pay for the title policy, they often do not know from whom the policy is being purchased or how to "shop around" to determine the best price or best terms of the title policy they purchased.
8. Respondent acts as the title policy issuing agent in residential property mortgage transactions. It receives orders for policies from lenders and real estate agents, and in some cases directly from consumers. Respondent then assigns those orders to a variety of title insurance underwriters for which it is a title policy issuing agent, including Arsenal Insurance Corporation (Arsenal).

9. Arsenal is a title insurance underwriter headquartered in Carmel, Indiana. Arsenal was established in 2004 and provides loss indemnity under its title insurance policies to real estate owners and lenders. Under its title policies, Arsenal provides indemnity for actual loss suffered by an insured policy holder due to liens, encumbrances, or defects in the title to property located in the State of Indiana.
10. Arsenal has three individual owners. Respondent has eight individual owners, three of whom are the owners and executives of Arsenal. Arsenal's President has an ownership interest in Respondent and serves as its Vice President and Senior Counsel. Arsenal's Vice President/Agency Representative has an ownership interest in Respondent and serves as its Vice President of Sales and Marketing. Respondent's CEO has an ownership interest in Arsenal and Respondent.
11. Respondent and Arsenal have an "affiliated business arrangement" as that term is defined in 12 U.S.C. § 2602(7).
12. Because of Respondent's overlapping ownership and control of Arsenal, which was not disclosed to consumers, Respondent was able in some cases to deviate from its contractual terms and to keep money beyond the commission allowance outlined in its agency contract when issuing Arsenal title insurance policies. These additional amounts that fell outside the contractually-outlined commission structure were not reasonable compensation for services actually performed in the issuance of Arsenal's title insurance policies, nor were they a return on an ownership interest or franchise relationship.

Respondent's RESPA Violations

13. RESPA § 8(a), entitled "Prohibition Against Kickbacks and Unearned Fees," states that "[n]o person shall give and no person shall accept any fee, kickback, or thing of value pursuant to any agreement or understanding, oral or otherwise, that business incident to or a part of a real estate settlement service involving a federally related mortgage loan shall be referred to any person." 12 U.S.C. § 2607(a).
14. RESPA's implementing regulation defines "referral" to include "any oral or written action directed to a person which has the effect of affirmatively influencing the selection by any person of a provider of a settlement service..." and "whenever a person paying for a settlement service or business incident thereto is required to use a particular provider of a settlement service or business incident thereto." 12 U.S.C. § 2607(a).
15. RESPA defines "thing of value" broadly to include "any payment, advance, funds, loan, service, or other consideration"; and the implementing regulation defines "thing of value" to include "without limitation, monies, things, discounts, salaries, commissions, fees, duplicate payments of a charge, stock, dividends, distributions of partnership profits, franchise royalties, credits representing monies that may be paid at a future date, the opportunity to participate in a money-making program, retained or increased earnings, increased equity in a parent or subsidiary entity, special bank deposits or accounts, special or unusual banking terms, services of all types at special or free rates, sales or rentals at special prices or rates, lease or rental payments based in whole or in part on the amount of business referred, trips and payment of another person's expenses, or reduction in credit against an existing obligation.” 12 U.S.C. § 2602(2); 12 C.F.R. § 1024.14(d).

16. Respondent routinely selected Arsenal as its customers’ title insurance underwriter during the Relevant Period. Respondent thus received things of value—money beyond Arsenal’s contractual commission allowance—pursuant to an agreement or understanding that it would refer business to Arsenal by recommending homebuyers to use its affiliated business Arsenal for title insurance. Respondent thus violated RESPA § 8.

Affiliated Business Arrangement Disclosure

17. Under the regulation implementing RESPA § 8(c)(4), 12 U.S.C. § 2607(c)(4), “[a]n affiliated business arrangement is not a violation of § 8 of RESPA” if, among other conditions, “(1) ... each person whose business is referred [is provided] a written disclosure, in the format of the Affiliated Business Disclosure Statement set forth in appendix D of [12 C.F.R. Part 1024] of the nature of the relationship (explaining the ownership and financial interest) between the provider of settlement services (or business incident thereto) and the person making the referral and of an estimated charge or range of charges generally made by such provider (which describes the charge using the same terminology, as far as practical, as section L of the HUD-1 settlement statement). The disclosures must be provided on a separate piece of paper no later than the time of each referral or, if the lender requires use of a particular provider, at the time of loan application....” 12 C.F.R. § 1024.15(b).

18. From 2014 through 2016, Respondent made no Affiliated Business Arrangement disclosures to consumers.

ORDER

Conduct Provisions

IT IS ORDERED, under §§ 1053 and 1055 of the CFPB, that:

19. Respondent and its officers, agents, servants, and employees who have actual notice of this Order, whether acting directly or indirectly, may not violate § 8 of RESPA, 12 U.S.C. § 2607, including that for the issuance of title-insurance policies for federally related mortgage loans it cannot receive any amount of money, as commission or for any other reason, beyond reasonable compensation that is specifically permitted under its contracts with underwriters in exchange for services actually performed in the issuance of the relevant title-insurance policies.
20. Respondent must establish, implement, and maintain testing policies, procedures, and standards, and technology reasonably designed to create a compliance management system that will monitor the delivery of forms disclosing its affiliated business arrangement with Arsenal, and any other affiliated business arrangement, as appropriate under RESPA sec. 8 or its implementing regulation, and signed confirmations evidencing consumers' receipt of those forms, where Arsenal is selected as the title insurance underwriter.

VI

Compliance Plan

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

21. The Compliance Plan must include, at a minimum:
 - a. Detailed steps for addressing each action required by this Consent Order;
and
 - b. Specific timeframes and deadlines for implementation of the steps described above.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

26. The Board must review all submissions (including plans, reports, programs, policies, and procedures) required by this Consent Order prior to submission to the Bureau.
27. Although this Consent Order requires Respondent to submit certain documents for the review or non-objection by the Enforcement Director, the Board will have the ultimate responsibility for proper and sound management of Respondent and for ensuring Respondent complies with this Consent Order.
28. In each instance that this Consent Order requires the Board to ensure adherence to, or perform certain obligations of Respondent, the Board must:
 - a. Authorize whatever actions are necessary for Respondent to fully comply with the Consent Order;
 - b. Require timely reporting by management to the Board on the status of compliance obligations; and
 - c. Require timely and appropriate corrective action to remedy any material non-compliance with any failures to comply with Board directives related to this Section.

After receiving notification that the Enforcement Director has made a determination of non-objection to the Redress Plan, the Respondent must implement and adhere to the steps, recommendations, deadlines, and timeframes outlined in the Redress Plan.
32. After completing the Redress Plan, if the amount of redress provided to Affected Consumers is less than $1.25 million, within 30 days of the completion of the Redress Plan Respondent must pay to the Bureau, by wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent, and according to the Bureau's wiring instructions, the difference between the amount of redress provided to Affected Consumers and $1.25 million.

33. The Bureau may use these remaining funds to pay additional redress to Affected Consumers. If the Bureau determines, in its sole discretion, that additional redress is wholly or partially impracticable or otherwise inappropriate, or if funds remain after the additional redress is completed, the Bureau will deposit any remaining funds in the U.S. Treasury as disgorgement. Respondent will have no right to challenge any actions that the Bureau or its representatives may take under this Section.
